Terms & Conditions

Any equipment hired is the direct responsibility of the hirer whilst it is in their possession. The hirer agrees to insure the equipment against loss, theft or damage at their own expense for the period of hire. The hirer also agrees to take appropriate care to ensure that security of the equipment whilst it is in their possession.

Title to all hired equipment shall remain with Heason Events at all times.

All hire equipment is accepted as working at the time of delivery.

The hirer shall not sell or part with possession or control of the equipment at any time during the period of hire.

Hire equipment will not be taken out of Great Britain without prior written authorisation from Heason Events.

Under no circumstances will the hirer add to, alter, modify, adapt or interfere with in any way any item of equipment hired, nor will they allow any other party to do so.

The hirer will be charged for any damage, repairs and/or maintenance to the equipment that arises through misuse or negligence.

The hirer will notify Heason Events immediately should the equipment be stolen, lost or damaged in any way.

The hirer agrees to pay Heason Events full, new replacement costs for any equipment that is lost or damaged in any way and is beyond economic repair.

The hirer will be subject to extra and continuing hire charges for any period that the equipment is retained beyond the agreed hire period if any hire equipment is returned incomplete.
